

Donna Washington

Ghost Stories

Tuesday
October 10th
10:00 am
& 5:30 pm

The Doctors Bruce and Lee Foundation Library will be hosting Donna Washington, a well renowned storyteller, as she tells ghost stories for adults in the Stukes Meeting Room. Children 10 and older are welcome to attend with a parent or adult guardian.

Washington is an internationally known, multiple award winning storyteller, spoken word recording artist, and author. A highly animated performer, she has been entertaining, educating, and inspiring audiences with her vocal pyrotechnics and deep characterizations that bring folklore, literary tales, and personal narratives to life for over thirty years.

This program is free and open to the public. For information, call (843) 413-7074. The Doctors Bruce and Lee Foundation Library is located at 509 South Dargan Street in Florence. This program is made possible by Friends of Florence County Library.
